R. fl. EDDY, Solicitor of PATENTS

(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)

Ro. 70 STATE, OPPOSITE KLEAY ST.,

BOSTON.

A FTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries.

Oaveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches and einto American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by temitting One Collar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New Bugland, but through it inventors have advantages for severing patents, or assertaining the patentability of inventions, ansurpassed by it not immessurably superior to any which can be offered them elsewhere. The textimonials below give proof that uone is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PILOF OF ADVANTAGES AND BILLITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove that at no other office of the kind are the carayes for professional services so moderate The immense pracue of the subscriber during wenty years past has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to Datents. These besides his extensive library or legal and me chanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyand question, to offer superor facilities for obtaining patents.

All necessity of a journey to Vashington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there are here saved inventors.

The Cattle Plague.

We are glad to see our New Hampshire people waking up so spiritedly in regard to the terrible Cattle Pingue, alrendy among us—already doing its work of death in several counties of the State. Though a li tle late, and, in some cases, a little halfing, we are glad to witness the general spirit manifested by the people. It is the right spirit—the spirit that asks and demands protection, if protection can be had. And why should not people be aroused? It is a matter that concerns all; and, as

And why should not people be aroused?

And why should not people be aroused?

It is a matter that concerns all; and, as was well said by John L. Hadley, at the Weare meeting, it is one of far greater importance to the people of New Hampshire than any Presidential issue. What matters it who sits in the Presidential chair, if dovastation stalks among our herds, sweeping off the rich man's fifties and the poor man's one; and leaving the State a scathed and blasted territory? What may be, or is to be, we know not. Cower-ciee, selfishness, apathy, each will do its work and let the Plague spread, so far as it is concerned. And with suck helps and suck advisers, we but invite desolation to our homesteads and general distress to the community. We welcome misery and lose of property. And when these calquities are at our very doors and staring us in the of property. And when these calquities ore at our very doors and staring us in the face, shame on the coward and the recreant—the selfish and the apathetic, who are not up with armor on for a death-strife with the enemy. Shame, too, on the intensified knavery that would sneak round our shumbles and among our farm herds, at such a moment, for the sake of gambling in putrid carcases and turning the ling in puirid carcasses and turning this death-work into a source of money making. Shame on the micreants, all of them!

Shame on the miscreants, all of them!

Such are our feelings, plainly expressed, whoever may sympathise with them or denounce them. We care not. We go for the protection and satety of the People's cattle—not for the catch penny villainy that glots itself on the misery of the suffernee. that gluts itself on the misery of the suffering. But there will be eneaks—there will be traitors—there will be metabless meanness that will not hesitate to jeopardize the projecty of a whole township, by thrusting a diseased animal upon it, provided a few paltry dollars can be pocketed from the willainy. These are the wretches whom it

LOCAL ITEMS.

THE ISLAND CEMETERY.

Sometime since, the Corporation of the Island Cemetery made a large addition to their grounds, and have lately laid out the same, and are now ready to offer to all wishing to purchase a choice of the most eligible lots. They intend to number all the lots, to name the avenues running north and south alphabetically, and to give appropriate name: tu the others.

A very desirable feature in the manage ment of this cemetery is, that all the revenue derived from the sale of lots goes to increase the fund for beautifying the grounds. This fund now amounts to about $8,000. We cannot allude to this cemetery without according to Messra. Wm. Stevens and Henry J. Cook great praise for their efforts in its behalf; as it was owing mainly to their exertions that it was redeemed from a neglected, repulsive burying ground, and made a beautiful and attractive garden of the dead. Any efforts for the improvement of a city are always creditable, and especially so when made for the purpose of rendering attractive these places so long looked upon as dreary and repulsive. We are now in a great degree overcoming the feeling which prevented our ancestors from beautifying these homes of the dead-

"The dreariest spot in all the land
To Death they set apart,
With scanty grace from Nature's hand,
And none from that of Art."

While we rejoice in this change of feeling as evinced in the improvement of thes grounds, why not devote ourselves still marto adorning our cemeteries? Why not have them all carefully improved, showing the marks of love and respect which should surtound the spot where sleep the friends we have loved? True, the body only rests here, but as we would cherish it in life so would we rob death of the terrors which hang around a neglected, deserted burying ground. When Nature has done so much as it has for the Island Cometery, why should not care and affection do even more than they have? It affords a lovely view of our beautiful Narragausett. Overlooking a portion of the city, yet removed from all its noise and turmoil, it lies in peaceful, quiet seclusion; to those who will visit these charming grounds they need no praise.
Should not every place consecrated to the dead be a Greenwood, a Mount Auburn, a Laurel Hill? How much more tranquilly beautifully called by the Germans, should for. surely be guarded from everything like neglect, cultivated with fondest care and adorned with flowers and the evergreen emblems of immortality. To these teauties of Nature should be added the monuments of art. In process of time, the hand of affection will rear the pyramid, the shaft, and best of all, the cross, in memory of departed friends, and in token of their hope of glorious resurrection,

We rejoice to see so favorable an opportu nity for all persons to select their lots, and to do as much as possible to render pleasant and attractive these sad yet sacred spets con secrated to so many sweet memories.

Fort Liberty.

We stated a day or two since, that we had made an unsuccessful effort to ascertain the locality of this fort. We have had the pleasure of an interview with N. H. Gould, Esq., whose tasts and knowledge in antiquarian matters is excellent. He has no doubt that the fort was located on Brenton's Point, near the brick stable at Fort Adams.

ters is well known, is of the same opinion. As notice will be given. Let it be a grand union the existence of such a work may be unknown gathering, at which there shall be an interto most of our readers, and as the votes authorizing its building are singularly interest-ing, we have thought proper to copy them from the records. The copy is intended to appear as nearly a fac simils as possible, of the original. The reader will notice there are several blanks appearing occasionally in the copy. These blanks represent portions of the rece which, by reason of great age and frequent use have become illegible. The most of them are, however, readily supplied by the reader. From this record it would appear that at that period the town was in earnest, and de terminod to have that fortification raised at once. It appears, too, as though there was no escape from that labor except by paying up or joining the "People called Friends." That there were faithful officers in those days is clear from the action of William Davis. We have a curiosity to know if " ye said Da vir " encountered any angry opposition because he did his duty. Unless some other light reaches us, we shall consider that "Fort Lib arty" was on " Breuton's Point."

Court of Justices.

TERNER J. FRIDAY, July 6, 1860.

Newport Gas Light Company vs. Solomon T Hubbard. This is a very important casetest case—the facts of which are as follows Plaintiff swears that at the last settlement wit defendant, the meter registered 291 feet, that on the 30th of June it registered 295 feet, and brings action for 400 feet of gas, as, per the moter, consumed. Plaintiff also puts in the written agreement of defendant, that he would settle by the meter, and the rules of the Gas Company. He also puts in the rules of the BY THE YEAR. Company, which declare that all consumers A. J. WAI must pay for what gas passes through the me ter, whether burnt or not; that tuere will b no deduction from the registration of the me tor, in consequence of leakage. Defendant and clork swear that from the time of the last settlement up to June 30th, the shop where the meter is has been closed and looked and the key in his possession, and that the gas has not been used, to his certain knowledge, within the time specified. The decision of Court was in favor of defendant, from which plaintiff ap-pealed to the Supreme Court, August term.

AFTERNOON SESSION State vs. Michael McCauloy-Lawrence Mc-Call, complainant-for assault and battery Adjudged to be guilty and sentenced to pay a fine of six dollars and costs of prosecution and conviction, and to stand committed until sen tence in all its parts is fulfilled. And the Court announced that persons, whother waiters or otherwise, coming here, must obey the law or that tribunal would do its duty in the prem ises. William A. White for Government, and San. Van Zaudt for the delenge.

No little curiosity is expressed by our citizens to know the items of expenditure of the $100 appropriation for the "celebration's of the Fourth in this city. on a large scale engraved in the very best manner.

This map will show not only the roads but also each House and the farms from actual surveys.

The topography is from a survey by Lieut-Boyce of the U.S. Coast Survey department, and every endeavor has been made to render the map as accurate as possible, without regard to expense. The part of the Teland embraced by the survey is all of the south end, extending North as far as a line drawn through the North boundary of the township of Newport and therefore includes a large portion of Middletown.
